QRS Music Roll Factory

Weekend Edition Sunday, June 24, 2001 · The QRS Music Roll company is the last remaining mass producer of player piano rolls in the country. They churn out around half a million rolls a year, but a surprising number of them are songs written within the past two decades. Liane Hansen chats with Bob Burkman, their chief operating officer, about the challenges of keeping vibrant an art form that peaked in the 1920s.
